

Leo Espinoza

Facilities Director

Leo Espinoza is a native of Southern California. He was an independent business owner in Seattle, WA for more than 25 years before moving to Oklahoma City. The ultimate problem solver, Mr. Espinoza invented an invisible process for repairing leather. He is a “Jack-of-all-Trades,” with abilities in construction, plumbing, writing, small engines, electronics, and more. Technology, music, and electronics have been hobbies for more than 40 years. Mr. Espinoza has won numerous prizes and honors for his knowledge of trivia in music, history and pop culture.

In 2000, Mr. Espinoza began working with ASTEC on a voluntary basis, resulting in the savings of hundreds of thousands of dollars through his abilities in procurement and technology. In the summer of 2003, Mr. Espinoza was hired by ASTEC as a network administrator and procurement officer. Mr. Espinoza retired from ASTEC in the summer of 2015 after 15 years of dedicated service. He returned to assist ASTEC with various needs, including teaching technology and English. He is now back full-time as the Facilities Director.

Mr. Espinoza has three grown children, 3 grandchildren, and two dogs.
