

Dana Neal

Communications Director

Dana Neal is a native Oklahoman and attended the University of Oklahoma where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism/advertising. Later, she went back to school to further her career, where she took graphic design courses at the University of Missouri in St. Louis.

During her career, Ms. Neal gained valuable, broad-based experience in advertising, marketing, and graphic design, working for large and small companies and corporations, advertising agencies, and retail and wholesale manufacturing companies in Missouri, New Mexico, Texas, and Oklahoma.

Ms. Neal has two daughters. She loves to paint and create, cook, travel, and learn new things. She has also taken Spanish immersion classes in Antigua, Guatemala, where she lived with a local family and studied the language. One day she would like to go back to further her studies there.

