

Christy Hanna

Sociology/Psychology/World History

Christy Hanna earned her Associate of Arts degree in liberal arts from Oklahoma City Community College. She earned a Bachelor of Arts in history education from the University of Central Oklahoma. Ms. Hanna is certified in social studies, psychology, sociology, and French.

Ms. Hanna started her career at Piedmont Middle School, where she taught seventh-grade geography and eighth-grade U.S. history. She was a substitute teacher at ASTEC and worked with middle and high school students before joining the faculty full-time as a history and psychology teacher.

Ms. Hanna has lived in Oklahoma most of her life.

