Health

Victor Macias was born and reared in Oklahoma City. He graduated from the University of Central Oklahoma (UCO) with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history education.

After graduating, Mr. Macias worked as a full-time substitute teacher for his former middle school and high school, Santa Fe South. After his first year, he became an English Language Learner (ELL) paraprofessional and an assistant cross-country coach for the middle school. Mr. Macias later became the physical education teacher and the track and field head coach.

In March 2023, Mr. Macias became the first teacher in Oklahoma to win the Phillips 66 and Donors Choose Teacher-of-the-Year award.

Mr. Macias enjoys road trips with his two dogs, Bumi and Malenia, collecting culture-based masks, and hiking.
