

Jeremy Espinoza

Maintenance Technician

Jeremy Espinoza is from Washington state. He grew up in Washington, California, and Oklahoma. Mr. Espinoza attended Oklahoma City University and Oklahoma State University.

Mr. Espinoza scored the highest ACT at Northwest Classen High School with a score of 35 out of 36.

Mr. Espinoza speaks and writes Japanese. He spent time teaching English in Japan.

After college, Mr. Espinoza taught outdoor education at the Mendocino Woodlands State Park in the redwood forest in northern California.

He loves the outdoors and is physically active as a trail runner and hiker, in addition to practicing martial arts. He enjoys playing his guitar and spending time with his wife, Hannah, and their two children, Sage Fox and Winona. They live in Oklahoma City.

