

Tena Holmes

Special Projects Coordinator

Tena Holmes was born in Rantoul, Illinois. She was reared in Enid, Oklahoma, and later moved to Midwest City. After finishing high school, Ms. Holmes joined the Army and served seven years in the 4155th United States Army Reserve Forces (USARF) school. During this time, she also attended the University of Central Oklahoma.

Ms. Holmes went on to teach, fundraise and assist in several aspects of Destiny Christian School, where she worked for 20 years.

She enjoys traveling to the beach with her husband as often as they can, and they enjoy taking their three grandchildren whenever they can.
