

Deija Chiles

Elementary Physical Education

Deija Chiles is originally from Atlanta, Georgia. Ms. Chiles graduated from Langston University with a Bachelor of Science degree in health, physical education and recreation. She is currently seeking her Master of Science degree in sports administration.

Ms. Chiles hopes to one day build and run her own sports complex and youth center with sponsored recreational sports dedicated to youth in need. She has worked with and taught children of all grade levels throughout and after college.

Ms. Chiles' hobbies include reading, bowling, watching movies and relaxing with her family.

