

John Drake

Athletics and Activities Director

John Drake grew up in Indiana before moving to Fayetteville, AR as a teen. He graduated from Arkansas State University where he earned a Bachelor's of Science degree.

Mr. Drake spent seven years teaching at Community Christian School (CCS) in Norman, Oklahoma where he was the acting head coach for their middle school football team and served in several roles as an assistant coach on the varsity team. Coach Drake was the head coach for the CCS women's soccer program and directed both the varsity men's and middle school teams. He also manages to find time to coach competitive soccer for Sporting OK.

Coach Drake loves to spend time with his wife, Michelle, and their two sons, Kaden and Tyler, and their twin daughters, Olivia and Evelyn. His hobbies include movies, sports, and video games in his down time.
